Activities and Recommendations

Chapter Business and Committee Activities:

An information session has been scheduled for Wednesday Sept, 16th, 2009 from 6 to 8 pm at Ryerson University, Toronto in the London/Paris Room. The front entrance is 240 Jarvis and the rear entrance is 133 Mutual. This will also be the venue for all three study sessions beginning in October 2009.

The purpose of the session is to educate potential participants on eligibility requirements, the course, student involvement/participation, the certification process and the exam process. The information session will present the course agenda including participant requirements, format and content. Moderators for all three courses will be in attendance to answer your questions. We will also have representation from the Toronto Chapter Executive and the ASIS International PCB to talk about the certification and exam process.

Next Meeting:
Date:	October 15, 2009
Topic:	12th Annual Law Enforcement and Security Practitioner Awards Dinner

Speaker: Executive and Awards Committee

Dates/Description of Planned Special Activities/Projects:

The Toronto Chapter of ASIS International takes great pride in having the opportunity to recognize the contributions of local law enforcement and security personnel across the GTA and celebrates its 12th Annual Law Enforcement & Security Practitioners Appreciation Awards Dinner on Thursday, the 15th of October 2009. The event will be hosted at the Panemonte Banquet Hall. The dinner will commence at 7:00 pm with the award presentations to members of police agencies and security organizations from around the Greater Toronto Area immediately following.

The keynote speaker will be Detective Paul Henderson of the Hamilton Police B.E.A.R. unit (Break & Enter, Auto theft & Robbery). He will be speaking about the cooperative efforts of both private sector and public law enforcement agencies in defining cases and apprehending offenders.

Location : Panemonte Banquet Hall 220 Humberline Drive, Etobicoke, Ontario

Security Canada Central October 21-22, 2009

Security Canada International Security Conferences and Expositions are the leading security industry events in Canada.
