

Job Description – Scholarship and Award Programs Rep

Reporting to: Education Committee Chair

Working with: Communications Rep, On-Campus Promotions Rep, Program Committee Security Practitioner Liaison

Term: January – December

Job Function:

The main job function of the Scholarship and Award Programs Rep is to coordinate the delivery of, and promote student and faculty participation in, scholarship and award programs sponsored by the chapter and/or by ASIS International.

Job Responsibilities:

- Administer Chapter Scholarship Program
- Promote ASIS Foundation Student Writing Competition
- Assist Security Practitioner Liaison in promoting Security Educator Award

Created: November 2009

Revised: November 2012